Ten Years of Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry

Imagine joining a group that was meaningful to you. Then imagine finding that its beginnings and development is even richer than you thought. That is what happened when we reviewed the archives of the early years (1998-2004) of the Small Group Ministry and Covenant Groups. Included are writings by Rev. Bob Hill and others in the Covenant Group News, several classic articles and formative conference proceedings, and an historic timeline. And just as vital are ongoing writings in the last year as people continue to implement Small Group Ministry and Covenant Groups. Ten Years of Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry, in conjunction with Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry (June 2008) that focused on writings from the formation of the Network (2004-2008), comprise the most comprehensive collection of past and present information on Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry and Covenant Groups. June 2009

Implementing Small Group Ministry This evolving document considerations for implementing Small Group Ministry regarding program development, ongoing administration, groups, facilitators, session plans, visibility, and a new section on uses of Small Group Ministry. This volume incorporates information from congregations, the Summer Small Group Ministry Institutes, CGNews and other writings and discussions. October 2009

Facilitator Training Manual This guide for implementing an in-house training and development program covers facilitator selection, initial training, on-going facilitator support, and enrichment training. Included is the Facilitator's Guide, a training module to customize for your program, use in your training sessions and distribute to group leaders. The manual will help ensure the growth and health of your Small Group Ministry program as you prepare facilitators and support them in successful group leadership. December 2008

Unitarian Universalist Small Group Ministry This compilation includes 50 articles that have appeared in the UU Small Group Ministry Network Quarterly and on the website in the last five years, as well as several new items. Content includes SGM in general, oversight, the role of ministers and shared ministry, facilitation, groups, session plans, visibility and uses of small group ministry. June 2008

Small Group Ministry for Youth The background of Small Group Ministry gives the basis for developing this dynamic format for Youth. This resource includes a session for facilitators, and discussion and session plans for The Five Steps to Building Community and Six Components of a Balanced Youth Program. 25 session plans are included.
